About Me

Hi! I'm Shalsa, a creative content enthusiast who loves turning everyday moments into scroll-stopping content.

I enjoy exploring TikTok trends, creating relatable storytelling, and producing content that feels authentic while helping brands connect with their audience. I believe great content isn't just about looking good—it's about making people stop, watch, engage, and remember.

I'm always curious, fast to adapt, and excited to bring fresh ideas that combine creativity with marketing goals. Whether it's UGC, lifestyle, beauty, or F&B content, I love creating videos that feel natural and impactful.

I believe great content starts with understanding the audience. My creative process combines trend research, storytelling, and strategic thinking to produce content that is engaging, relatable, and aligned with brand goals. Every project is an opportunity to create meaningful connections through authentic content.

Shalsa Nurfadillah

Creative

Creating content that feels authentic, relatable, and impossible to scroll past.

Every piece of content should have a clear purpose. I focus on creating content that balances creativity with strategy, ensuring every video not only looks engaging but also delivers value for both the audience and the brand.

Philosophy

Work Experience

Collaborated with beauty, fashion, and lifestyle brands to create engaging UGC and social media content that enhances brand awareness and audience engagement.

CONTENT CREATOR

Collaborated with beauty, skincare, fashion, and lifestyle brands to create engaging social media content tailored to each campaign. Experienced in developing creative concepts, producing short-form videos, and delivering authentic content that aligns with brand identity and marketing objectives.

BRAND COLLABORATION

Collaborated with beauty, fashion, and lifestyle brands to create authentic content that aligns with campaign goals and strengthens audience engagement.

TREND RESEARCH

Identifying social media trends, audience preferences, and viral content to develop relevant and engaging campaign ideas.

Process

RESEARCH & DISCOVERY

- Analyze the brand, target audience, and campaign objectives.
- Research market trends and high-performing content.
- Gather creative insights to develop an effective content strategy.

CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT

- Brainstorm original and engaging content ideas.
- Create storylines, scripts, and visual concepts.
- Plan product integration that feels authentic and relatable.

CONTENT PRODUCTION

- Capture high-quality photos and videos.
- Execute the planned concept with attention to detail.
- Edit content using engaging visuals, captions, and sound design.

REVIEW AND DELIVERY

- Review content for quality and brand consistency.
- Apply revisions based on client feedback.
- Deliver polished content optimized for social media performance.

Project Highlights

This selection of brand collaborations showcases my approach to creating authentic, engaging, and results-driven content.

Combining creativity, storytelling, and audience-focused content.
